

Instructions for Authors

General information: The full-length manuscript has to be submitted online until 22th of January 2021. Please note the specified character specifications - which cannot be exceeded. The character specification includes spaces.

Submission: Manuscripts should be submitted online.

Documents: Please send manuscripts (a formatted text document), figures and tables as an attachment in the file format docx, jpg, png, or xlsx. The total size of all systems must not exceed 8 MB. You can upload larger attachments to Wetransfer (<https://wetransfer.com/>) and insert the link in the form under Link Wetransfer. Please enter the table and figure captions in the manuscript field.

Manuscript layout: The manuscript should be written in MS Word in English or German (manuscript for oral presentation: maximum 15000 characters; manuscript for poster presentation: maximum 9000 characters). It must include the title and information of the authors (full name(s), their academic title(s), affiliations and addresses as well as the e-mail address of the corresponding author) at the beginning of the manuscript. The paper should also include: Summary, Keywords, Introduction, Material and Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusions, Literature (Example: Bohner A., Habeler H., Starlinger F., Suanjak M. (2010) Avalanches keep habitats open and species rich in the montane and subalpine belt. eco.mont Vol 2, 53-57.) and table and figure captions.

Co-authors: Due to new layout specifications from our government department and the resulting shortage of space only four co-authors in the proceedings can be mentioned. In the text, however, an indication of all authors is possible.

Summary: The maximum number of character in the summary is 1000. The summary should be given in both languages.

Keywords: Five keywords should not overlap with the manuscript title. Give the keywords in both languages.
